LEARNING/RECREATIONAL LEAGUE UPDATE:

Learning league continues on Saturday nights at Kapaolono until Christmas. It has usually been games of 7 on 7. There has been a steady group of people who show up, though it does fluctuate a bit. The people who come have been having fun.

LEAGUE UPDATE:

The league went well. Approximately 160 people signed up. 147 people paid for insurance – 9 from Big Island, 138 from league. Finals came down to sudden death and was quite thrilling. Rebecca Eldredge and Patrick Riehle are the new commissioners.

KAIMANA KLASSIK UPDATE:

16 open teams with one on the wait list. 9 womens teams with 2 maybes. Fields are good, discs are done, and logistics are going well. The party and liquor will be starting earlier to accommodate the concerns of the polo fields.

HOPU KA LEWA UPDATE:

The dates of the tournament are Easter Weekend – March 25th – 27th, 2005. It will be held at the Mokuleia Polo Fields with camping at Camp Mokuleia.

FUTURE LEAGUES DISCUSSION:

A discussion was held in an attempt to plan for the future of Hawaii ultimate and how best to accommodate the coming growth. Issues such as how much growth could be supported, field space, differing skill and competitive levels of players, and how many leagues to run and when were discussed. Many people like the city league atmosphere of bringing everyone together into one league, but differing skill levels and attitudes can create tension. The idea of separate advanced and recreational leagues was popular, but it was unclear what the best format for that would be and also how to handle players who would want to play in both.

ADJOURNMENT:

The meeting adjourned at 12:30 p.m.

The next meeting is scheduled for 10:00 am, Sunday January 30th, 2005 at Ignacio's house.
